PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

Symbolizing a fresh start and the idea of change, this collection is based on the life cycle of the dandelion, which begins and ends with the blowing of its seeds, which, when released, reach the ground and give rise to new lives. This connection between life and death translates into a perfect metaphor based on letting ourselves be carried away by the flow of life, embracing the unknown and believing in the possibility of a new beginning, in which each sigh is a new opportunity!
